

CEDAR GROVE HAD A GOL-DARNED BIG DOIN'S LAST NIGHT!

By Heck, You Ought to Been There! They Sure Did Open That There New Town Hall!

NO SNIDE PLACE, EITHER! It's First Class, Even if Si Perkins Does Allow They Ain't Enough Spittoons in It.

(Special to The Evening World.) CEDAR GROVE, N. J., Jan. 2.—The Public Hall of Cedar Grove is now a thing actual and concrete, having been formally dedicated on the first of the New Year with big doings, music by the town band, in which Squire Baldwin added with his usual cast, dancing and other simple festivities. Frank Ruse came early in the evening with his dancing duck, Angina Pectoris, and offered to furnish a diverting side show, but his offer was snuffed by Grand Master of Ceremonies Cowie.

Mr. Cowie called Frank Ruse's attention to the fact that the grand opening of the Public Hall was a dignified and elegant entertainment and that dancing ducks or waltzing roosters were not in order. If the members of the Cedar Grove Board of Poultry Trade couldn't for once divorce business from pleasure, they had better remain home, he intimated.

George Henry Smith, premier eggspert of the Gooseberry Confederacy, was there, and so was Mrs. George Henry Smith, who was presented with a handsome cut glass pitcher by the Women's Auxiliary of Cedar Grove as a reward for her good work in helping the auxiliary to raise funds to build the hall.

While the new Public Hall of Cedar Grove will serve as the town hall, it will not be called the town hall, for the simple reason that the town did not lend a hand in building it. Paradoxical as it may sound, the Public Hall is a private enterprise, built by private subscription. The Township Committee of three, which governs Cedar Grove, must pay for the privilege of holding its sessions in the Public Hall, and so must the Cedar Grove Board of Poultry Trade.

SI PERKINS ALLOWS THE HALL IS TOO DINGED UP TO DATE. Chairman Si Perkins of the Board of Poultry Trade, who inspected the new and commodious structure last night offered several objections to the construction and equipment of the chamber assigned for the sessions of the illustrious body he dominates. First, there were no spittoons and the windows were the turnpike, secondly, it was steam heated, wherefore there was no stove on which to rest the feet at a comfortable elevation, and thirdly, it was "too dinged up to date."

"All this 'lectricity' into this town," said Chairman Perkins, "is a-goin' to spittoons, you know, they'll be running off or them new-fangled sewers into town, an' you don't have to know nothin' about anything to know that sewers are unhealthy for live stock an' poultry. The 'lectricity' has cut down the 'lectric' powers of my hens an' ducks 40 per cent. It fits into the feathers of the hens an' makes 'em cross, an' as for the roosters, it seems to take all the life an' vim out of 'em. Now they come along with this new-fangled town hall, what a teller can't sit comfortable in without wearin' cuffs."

There are two big assembly halls in the new Public Hall, with fine floors for dancing. The facade of the building, facing the turnpike, is embellished with a large balcony, where the town band will give its concert next summer. Squire Baldwin says the balcony is strong enough to hold fourteen pieces and that if passing automobiles can be compelled to muffle their exhausts and tions down their streets it will be possible for the brass in the band to be heard over in Thumb Point.

Storekeeper Gus Meyer is said to have voted fourteen times in one day in favor of the town hall. Gus has put in a new ice cream machine and the festivals and such to be held in the Public Hall next summer should bring him in a big haul. Forty bricks of cream were sold last night—ex-Cavalryman John Freely, George Henry Smith's private secretary and live stock valet, getting outside of four, by way of a test.

YOU KNOW THAT WALLY DOBBS? JUST LISTEN TO WHAT HE DID, BY HECK! Mr. Gillingham, who has replaced Squire Baldwin as leader of the town band, the squire being too busy tuning his new fiddle to continue the arduous business of leader, was in the cavalry about the same time that John Freely was. Both have fought Indians, but they cannot agree on that ancient moot question—Does an Indian smile? Freely says yes and Gillingham says no. They each put up a dollar to back their opinions last night, turned the stakes over to Wally Dobbs and left it for him to decide at the conclusion of the debate. Before they had finished Wally Dobbs had spent the stakes buying ice cream for Squire Baldwin's daughter, wherefore, when asked for a decision, he told them they were both right. During the debate, however, the band was silent. Among those present at that greatest occasion in the history of Cedar Grove last night were (list furnished by George Henry Smith): George Henry Smith, Mrs. George Henry Smith, George Henry Smith's household factors, John Freely, Charles Hanson Towne, editor of Delinquent, Author Duffy, Author George Henry Smith, Farmer Smith, Mrs. Farmer Smith, Mr. Parker, Gov. Woodrow Wilson's campaign manager, Mrs. Parker and Miss Parker, thirty members of the Jacobus family, all the Treasurers, Mr. Cowie and other Cowies, Jim Cism, Fred Holsapple, Phineas Whackerfinger, the Great Notch Burbank, Loc Rose of Little Falls, Mr. A. B. Fretz, owner of the cow Bunterose, that once gave electric milk, Hugo Pebbles of Great Notch, Gerald Blossom and three hundred and seventy-five others.

JUDGE HOLT IMPRISONED IN STALLED ELEVATOR.

Post-Office Building Lift Sticks Between Floors Twenty Minutes While Passengers Fume.

The big oval elevator in the Post-Office Building stuck between the first and second floors to-day and imprisoned Judge Holt and nineteen other passengers for twenty minutes. No one was frightened, but there was considerable impatience at the delay.

As the time for Judge Holt's session in the Admiralty Court passed, his place on the bench was taken by Judge Hought. Then, without warning, the elevator started again. The passengers, most of whom were clerks and jurors, were released at the second floor. Those who were going higher refused to make the journey in the elevator.

A young law clerk added to the humor of the situation by trying to escape from the stalled elevator. He wedged himself between the car and the floor and had to be hauled back. He protested, declaring he had some papers to file and would probably be fired, as his employer would accept no excuse.

All the elevators in the Post-Office Building were changed from hydraulic to electric power three weeks ago. There has been trouble twice since. A burned out fuse caused to-day's delay.

His Nap Was Death.
Ypolita Eufanio, thirty-five years old, of No. 15 Monroe street, called on his friend, James Cola, who has a little grocery store at No. 132 Cherry street, to-day. Cola was busy and told Ypolita to sit down. Ypolita sat down and apparently went to sleep. At last Cola went over and spoke to him. Ypolita did not reply and could not be roused. An ambulance was called from Hudson Street Hospital and Dr. Wordham said the young man had been dead for an hour. He had died of heart disease.

Auto Truck Hits Girl.
Seven-year-old Cella Trevare of No. 217 East Twenty-ninth street was crossing Second avenue near Twenty-eighth street when she fell in the path of a large auto truck owned by the Barber Asphalt Company and driven by James Cowie of No. 104 East One Hundred and Twenty-second street. The child regained her feet in time to avoid the wheels, but the side of the truck struck her in the shoulder. She was taken to Bellevue Hospital suffering from shock and internal injuries.

ACHIEVEMENT SALE

THE new NEMO "AUTO-MASSAGE" SELF-REDUCING CORSET not only reduces the figure by a comfortable re-adjustment of the flesh, but actually reduces the flesh by scientific massage. This is accomplished by a new adjustment of the Self-Reducing Straps in combination with other newly-patented devices.

This is not a new theory, but simply the successful application of a SCIENTIFIC FACT, well known to every physician and hygienist—that the persistent movement of the body against steady pressure will not only prevent the FORMATION of fat, but WILL CAUSE FATTY TISSUE TO BE RE-ABSORBED AND REMOVED when already formed. It is a perfect substitute for the hand-manipulation of a skillful masseuse.

The truth of our original claim that the Nemo Self-Reducing Corset positively reduces the abdomen has been proved beyond question. Millions of women who have worn and still wear these corsets are convinced of this.

The new NEMO "AUTO-MASSAGE" SELF-REDUCING Corset represents the highest perfection of the original Nemo Self-Reducing Idea; but it goes further—it causes the absorption of fat, thereby actually decreasing the deposit of fatty tissue and materially reducing both the weight and size of the figure in a comparatively short time.

Detailed description of this new device and its hygienic action is impossible in this space; but the picture shows its inevitable effect—symmetrical figure-reduction never before possible, with the highest degree of comfort ever enjoyed by women of full form.
